KSIA

What is KSIA?

The Kansas Self-Insurers Association (KSIA) is a not-for-profit organization composed of firms, businesses, corporations, group funded pools, and other private and public entities operating in the state of Kansas.

KSIA's Purpose

- To further and protect the interests of employers in the state of Kansas
- To maintain an active interest in Kansas' workers compensation laws
- To keep members informed of trends, pending legislation, regulations, and other matters which affect Kansas employers
- To provide representation at meetings, hearings, conferences, and other forums
- To cooperate with other organizations which have similar interests
- To provide opportunities to exchange information and education with employers
